FPR-C RECIPROCITY (Current FPRs ONLY)

Member (Reciprocity Only) ($50)

What is the FPR-C?

The FPR-C is the skills complement to FCRA's FPR and is a voluntary (optional) skills examination. In order to be eligible to sit for the FPR-C, a candidate must:

- Be a current member of FCRA*;
- Be a steno or voice writer;
- Provide his or her own laptop and CAT software for testing; and
- Have the ability to email his or her test papers to the Committee for grading.

What is reciprocity and do I qualify?

A candidate who wishes to use the FPR-C designation but does not wish to test may use the FPR-C designation if they meet the following criteria:

- Be a current FPR or pass the FPR before being eligible to use the FPR-C designation;
- Be a current member of NCRA (National Court Reporters Association) and show proof to the Committee of their current membership status; and
- Successfully passed at least one of the RPR, RMR, RDR, CRR, or CRC skills examinations awarded by NCRA.

FPR-C reciprocity requires one of the following items which must attached with this registration form or submitted with your payment:

- Current NCRA CEU Cycle Transcript with certifications listed.
(Click here to access your transcript on NCRA's website)

- or -

- Letter from NCRA, on NCRA letterhead, indicating your current membership status and qualifying certification achieved (RPR or higher)
